1. Sederunt and apologies: as above

2. Minutes of the December meeting - these were not available.

3. Business arising:

There were none.

4. Reports

a) Police: PC Brown said that there had been a domestic assault, breach of the peace and a break-in attempt at the Drill Hall.

John Johnson asked that the Johnston School be looked at as there were concerns that people were getting in to the building. PC Brown agreed to mention this to his colleagues.

b) Dumfries and Galloway Councillors: Cllr Drysdale thanked everyone for a warm welcome. She said that she was looking into the issue of bus timetables as well as setting up a youth group on a Thursday evening in the town.

c) Chamber of Commerce: No one present.

- d) Kirkcudbright Forum: Nothing to report.
- e) Incorporated Trades: The Annual bring Supper was being held on 23rd February at Arden House.
- f) Kirkcudbright Development Trust: Mr Johnson reported Silvercraigs Caravan Park had almost finished its upgrading work and the Stage 2 Asset transfer was underway. The Johnston School had received the vast majority of the funding needed, and it is hoped that it would go out to tender in February. He also reported that the DT was meeting with Visit Scotland to discuss the impending closure of the Tourist Information Centre at the harbour. He agreed to keep everyone informed about any developments.
- g) Kirkcudbright Academy: No one present.

5. Stewarty Area Committee: Nothing to report.

6. Common Good Fund: Nothing to report.
